We, the parish family of Our Lady of Nazareth, do hereby covenant ourselves both individually and collectively to God, our Father, by working to accomplish the goals set forth below. Having been called by God, our Father, we are united by our commitment of service to others as living witnesses of the life, death and resurrection of Christ as taught by the Scriptures and His example. We, who are called to be ministers, missionaries and priests covenant ourselves to the following:

To develop authentic and meaningful liturgical celebrations to praise God and intensify our faith. To advance the physical, social and emotional well-being of the parish family and the human community by caring for the needs of the aged, poor, lonely, racially exploited, socially oppressed, helpless and suffering people. To provide ample social activities so that we might develop as a parish family. To provide continuous religious education and formation for all parish members. To provide adequate physical surroundings, financial resources, and management to implement this covenant. So help us God. Amen

ADULT CHRISTIAN FORMATION

Creation Care Spirituality and Ecology

What is Creation Care? Join us Monday, May 24th at 7:00 pm as Dolores Skelly of OLN and a panel of individuals will explore and answers questions on this topic. The Church has a responsibility towards creation, and she considers it her duty to exercise that responsibility in public life, in order to protect earth, water and air as gifts of God the Creator meant for everyone. The words of Pope Benedict XVI encourage us "to renew and strengthen that covenant between human beings and the environment which should mirror the creative love of God, from whom we come and towards whom we are journeying." What do I believe about caring for creation? What does my faith or culture teach about creation care? What do other faiths teach? Explore some strategies for creation care in areas of water, energy, health and socio-economic justice.

INQUIRY SESSIONS

If you've been coming to mass for a while, but are not Catholic, we invite you to look deeper into the Catholic faith. Come meet some faithful Catholics who love the Lord and would consider it a privilege to get to know you. Our parish will soon begin a set of sessions to share with others the truths of the Catholic faith and the fellowship of our church family. We invite you to learn what Catholics believe in an open and welcoming environment. These sessions also are the opportunities for you to ask those perplexing and difficult questions you may have about the Church. Sessions are always held on Thursday evenings at 7:00 pm. Please give us a call at 774-0066 ext 16, if you have questions or would like further information, or email us at rcia@oln_parish.com.
