Question of the Week
Matthew 21: 28-32

What have I learned from my resistance to God's will that helps me to say "yes" AND do "yes?"

Family Question: Both Jesus and John the Baptist taught people "the way of righteousness" - that is to live according to God's will. What teachings or sayings or actions of Jesus help me the most to live as God wants me to live?

Faithful Citizenship—Forming
Consciences For Faithful Citizenship

- This Monday September 29th at 7:00 PM
- Location OLN Fellowship Hall

In November 2007, the U.S. Catholic Bishops adopted Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, a statement on our baptismal calling to civic engagement. On Monday, September 29, Our Lady of Nazareth parish in Roanoke will host a presentation exploring faithful citizenship and ways in which we can apply our Catholic faith to the political process. The event will include a video featuring Richmond Bishop Francis DiLorenzo and Arlington Bishop Paul Loverde, as well as a presentation by Jeff Caruso, Director of the Virginia Catholic Conference.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN PRAYER the faithfully departed, Helen DeFelice, Brent Masey, son of Lynn Kaszar and Gina Johnson, daughter and step daughter of Chris & Lisa Johnson. Our support is with their families in this time of sorrow.

ST. FRANCIS HOUSE is in need of TUNA AND CANNED SOUP. Please be generous in helping those less fortunate in our valley.

Many thanks to all of you who have helped Roanoke Catholic School by saving and bringing in those Box Tops for Education. We are hoping more of you will be able to help. Please look on General Mills Cereal boxes, Pillsbury products, Kleenex brand products and Ziploc brand products just to name a few to find the box tops coupons. They can be dropped off in the copy room in the parish office (near the fellowship hall). We also are very happy to get Campbell's Soup labels and Tyson Red Labels (red panel that says Project A+ 1-2-3). All of these help us earn money for our school.
